NEWS-SUN STAFF REPORT A Zion teenager agreed to a reduced sex charge in court and has been sentenced to four years in prison. According to court documents, Omar Weekes, 18, of the 3900 block of Sedge Street, pleaded guilty two counts of aggravated criminal sexual abuse, in relation to a case where he was charged with having sex with a young relative. The guilty plea to the Class 2 felonies comes with a four-year prison sentence. He does receive credit for the year he's spent in the Lake County Jail since his late-May 2008 arrest. Weekes was originally charged with five counts of predatory criminal sexual assault of a child, after it was learned he had sex with a girl under the age of 13. He was scheduled to go to trial on those counts later this month.
