Correction: Corrections and 30 months of felony probation after pleading guilty to criminal sexual abuse.

Haxall said Czajkowski met the girl on the Internet last November.

He was arrested by Gurnee police in May after a third party informed officials at the girl's school that she and Czajkowski were involved in an inappropriate relationship.

Authorities discovered the two were having sex, and Czajkowski was charged, said Cmdr. Jay Patrick.

Czajkowski also must register as a sex offender for the rest of his life and is restricted from using the Internet.

He was previously arrested in 1998 following a domestic dispute with his sister.

, when he kicked and pushed her during an argument. He was subdued with pepper spray when officers arrived, police records show.
